Ghoulies, Ghosties, & Things That Go Bump in the Night

Instructor: Baroness Catriona nichGh mclaeay

Time & Location: 1 PM at A & S Tent #1

Just how did the Great Pumpkin get to be?? The class will look at how the pagan and Christian traditions intertwined to become the American Halloween. Adults only—this is not a class for children. No class limit, no handout, and no fee.

Iamb I Said: Basic Bardics

Instructor: Lord Llywelyn Glyndwr

Time & Location: 11 AM at the Magic Carpet Kavehane

Length: 1 Hour

Soldiers go to boot camp to learn disciplines such as marching and shooting straight, but, all too often, bards skip the step of knowing their essential tools. By contrasting passages from Shakespeare, Beowulf, and the Ballad of Gilligan's Island, we'll explore some bardic basics including the use of rhythm, sound patterns, and imagery, and how they influence meaning. Ages 12 and up welcome with no class limit. Includes handout with no fee.

Illumination for Beginners

Instructor: Lady Magdalein Webbe

Time & Location: 1 PM at A & S Tent #2

A beginning illumination class that examines the materials and inspiration of the art of illumination. No class or age limit but no unsupervised children please. Includes handout with no fee.

Irish Myth and Legend

Instructor: THL Brendan O Corraidhe

Time & Location: 2 PM at the Magic Carpet Kavehane

Length: 90 Minutes

If you're a fan of things Celtic, you've probably heard the names Finn Mac Cumail, Cuchullain, Maeve, Conor Mac Nessa, Nuada of the Silver Hand, Tuatha de Dannan, Tain bo Culaighe, and so forth. This class will string them all together for you in their proper sequence and arrangement. While we'll cover some supernatural and semi-supernatural figures such as the Morrigan and the Sidhe, this class is not a primer on Celtic gods and goddesses. Rather, it focuses on the intersection of Irish history with Irish hero-tales. No class limit. Includes handout with no fee.

Playing with Period Pigments:

Instructor: Baroness Milesent Vibert
 Time & Location: 12 PM at A & S Tent #2
 Length: 1 Hour

A discussion of the different types of pigments and binders used in period with a hands-on demonstration of how to mix and use pigments. No class or age limit, however, younger students might find the material a bit boring. No unsupervised children please. Includes handout with no fee.

Pleating with a Meat Fork

Instructor: Lady Tangwystl verch Ysgynydd
 Time & Location: 11 AM at A & S Tent #1
 Length: 1 Hour

No kidding! Learn to make quick, simple, and nearly perfect knife pleats, box pleats, and double box pleats by using only a meat fork and pins. Practice materials will be limited so feel free to bring your own meat fork, pins, and a 12 " scrap piece of rectangular shaped fabric. Beginning and experienced sewers welcome. No class limit. No unsupervised children please. Includes handout with no fee.

Target Archery Etiquette or How not to be "THAT ARCHER"

Instructor: Bran vo Lough Derg, Forester of the Greenwood Co.
 Time: 9:00 AM on the Archery Range
 Length: 30 to 45 Minutes

This class will cover target archery etiquette and the reasons behind the rules through a hands-on approach. Subjects covered will include equipment inspection, the ready line, the shooting line, retrieving, and scoring arrows. Adults and adults escorted by children welcome. No class limit, no handout, and no fee.

Turkish Coffee Tutorial

Instructor: Lady Juliane Bechaumpe
 Time & Location: 1 PM at the Magic Carpet Kavehane
 Length: One Hour

Join us at the Magic Carpet Kavehane and learn the secrets of brewing a cup of good Turkish coffee. Along the way, find out why some medieval Middle Easterners were, in fact, "dying for a cup of coffee", who frequented coffeehouses, what they talked about, the tales that were told, and other coffee tidbits.
